

GARY JOBSON TO HOST FORUM
FOR SECONDARY SCHOOL & COLLEGE SAILORS WITH VOLVO OCEAN RACE CREW MEMBERS

As part of the activities during the Baltimore/Annapolis Stopover of the Volvo Ocean Race, Gary Jobson will host an Interscholastic and Intercollegiate Forum with VOR crew members. The Forum will take place on April 30 at 2:00 p.m. in the Constellation Room at the Baltimore World Trade Center.

Gary Jobson has raced and won international sailing championships, including the America's Cup with Ted Turner in 1977, the infamous Fastnet Race and many of the world's ocean races. In 1999, Gary was awarded U.S. Sailing's highest honor, the prestigious National Herreshoff Award and was recently inducted into the America's Cup Hall of Fame. He has been ESPN's sailing commentator since 1985, is NBC Olympic sailing commentator, has authored 15 books on sailing, and is Editor-at-Large of Sailing World and Cruising World magazines.

The Volvo Ocean Race crews will have sailed some 25,000 miles from Vigo, Spain on the new VO70s and will be getting ready for their trans-Atlantic Leg of the Race.
